

Contents

Kaoru Ishikawa, the Man and Quality Control

Chapter 9	Quality Control Starts and Ends with Education	213
9.1	Leadership in the Establishment and Management of Various Seminars of JUSE	213
(1)	The QC Basic Course and the Ishikawa School
	“You Cannot Think That I Cover Your Back”	Hiroaki Nakazato 216
	This Is How the Diagnosis Should Be Done.	Bunteru Kurahara 217
	The Ishikawa School	Katsuhiko Tsunoda 218
(2)	QC Seminar for Executives
(3)	QC Seminar for Marketing
	Introduction of QC to the Marketing Department	Kosuke Kuji 224
(4)	QC Seminar for Purchasing
(5)	Introductory Course for Design of Experiment
9.2	Lecturing All the QC Courses Organized by the Chemical Society of JAPAN	228
	“Don’t Miss the Bus!”	Yoshitaka Ogiwara 229
9.3	Quality Control Courses on Radio and TV	232
	QC Courses on NHK Radio and TV	Masahiro Ohnishi 238
	Image and Reality/Professor Ishikawa on TV	Ichiro Sano 242
9.4	Counseling Activities at Enterprises	243
	“It’s Important for People to Interact Frankly and without Concealment”
		Rokuichi Yamada 244
	“Without Steady Improvement of Quality, No Progress Can Be Expected for the Company.”	Kiyoshi Tani 245
	Memories of Dr. Ishikawa	James A. Henderson 246
	Product Liability Prevention: The Most Important Issue	Yoshijiro Soda 248
	That Was Worth Doing	Taiji Sayo 249
	“New Product Development Is the Only Way to Get out of the Recession”
		Atsushi Yamagata 250
	“QC Is Not Something to Be Done by the QC Department.”
		Katsuyoshi Ishihara 251
	A Great Professor with a Warm Heart	Isao Itsukage 252