INVITATION

International Convention on QC Circles

The International Arena for Competition of Improvement and Innovation Teams

Jakarta, 15th – 18th November 2022

The ICQCC in 2022 hosted by Indonesia Quality Management Association (IQMA), will take place in JAKARTA, from 15th to 18th November 2022, it's been 16 years since it has been held in Bali – Indonesia, in 2006.

Actually, in ICQCC 2006 - Bali, IQMA promoted and organized the first international competition on QC Circles and Teams, as voluntary basis and in ICQCC 2007 Beijing – China, QCC competition conformed included within ICQCC event. Therefore, as the pioneer, we are sure that we are able to organize the better and fair competition in this ICQCC 2022.

After pioneering the first competition, we consider it important to hold the Assessment and Certification for our Judges (Assessors), in order to develop skill and knowledge of the Judge and hope we are able to carry out the reliable and fair competition in this 47th ICQCC 2022, as well.

With that effort, we are very hopeful, all of QC Circles, Improvement and Innovation Teams from all over the world to join this prestigious competition. In this case, we are proudly provide Sudomo Quality medal awards for winners, in four categories : Prime award, gold medal, silver medal and bronze medal.

The prime objective of this convention is to show the best improvement or innovation practices from all over the world, especially among countries in Asian region, as well as in Mauritius, Africa as the new CCM's ICQCC members. Therefore, this international quality events could be a very actual lesson learning opportunity.

By rising the theme : Build Back Better Through Quality Efforts, we believe this agenda can be a bridge to build the better future in the New Normal era.

Please, do not miss this golden challenging.

About JAKARTA

As the capital city of the Republic of Indonesia, Jakarta is in the northwest of Java Island, has rapidly expanded through the years, absorbing many villages in the process. This city is divided into 5 districts, namely Jakarta Pusat (Central), Jakarta Utara (North), Jakarta Barat (West), Jakarta Timur (East), and Jakarta Selatan (South).

Jakarta Pusat or Central Jakarta is where you can find the iconic landmarks such as Monumen Nasional- The National Monument, The Merdeka Palace, The National Museum, Istiqlal Mosque, The Jakarta Cathedral, and Monumen Selamat Datang or the Welcome Monument. Some of the most prestigious shopping malls and upscale hotels are located right in the heart of Central Jakarta. Here you can enjoy the 24 hours excitements of Jakarta !

Jakarta Utara or North Jakarta is where Taman Impian Jaya Ancol or Ancol Dreamland is located. From Ancol Bay, you can hop on a boat and head to Jakarta's pristine getaway, enriched with tropical islands named Kepulauan Seribu, or The Seribu Archipelago and sometimes also simply famous as The Thousand Islands. Here, there are more than 10 islands that one can explore.

The amazing historical heritage in West Jakarta is Museum Fatahillah and its surrounding Kota Tua or Old Jakarta district is where you can ride a classic bike to tour the area. The new iconic destination in West Jakarta is the contemporary art exhibition venue named Museum Macan, where Yayoi Kusama's artworks are displayed.

In East Jakarta, you can visit Taman Mini Indonesia Indah, the Miniature of Indonesia Archipelago. You can explore the details of traditional houses and a glimpse of Indonesia's diverse culture in this park.

When visiting South Jakarta, make sure to drop by at Setu Babakan and get to know the story of Betawi culture, the native ethnic group of Jakarta. There are a museum and traditional Betawi houses with few activities that you can experience, such as getting to know the traditional dance and music, tasting the local beverage of Bir Pletok, have a bite of Kerak Telor and making small ondel ondel, the iconic figure of Jakarta!
